FOREWORD

We, the Class of 1943, like
the United States Navy, sail out upon Graduation
to defend the ideals of American democracy.

Herein follows an account of our maneuvers during three years with the Trojan Fleet. Anchors aweigh!

SHIP'S LOG

FEATURES

CLASS HISTORY

In 1940, four hundred seventeen recruits enlisted for a three-year "hitch" aboard the "U. S. S. Pottstown Senior High." Student officers Lukens, Egolf, Suchoza, and Nester supervised our crew of apprentice seamen during the first year of service. The following year, with the crew reduced to three hundred seventy-one, officers Lightowler, LaPish, Suchoza, and Lau kept our ship afloat. Our third and last year aboard the vessel, "P. H. S.," saw a great many changes. Our country had been at war for over a year. Many crew members found it advisable to accept positions in local war plants, while still others joined the armed forces. However, under our able officers, Weaver, Suchoza, Lau, and Nester, the remainder of the crew were safely guided through the final ten months of apprenticeship.

Ours was one of the few classes to have three different football coaches during its "hitch." Mr. Geoffrey B. "Dutch" Slagle supervised the game while we were lowly "boots." During the next season, Mr. Heber T. Meyers served as head coach in both football and track; however, he was "transferred" to another ship by order of the War Department. Because of the emergency, an order of transfer was also handed his assistant, Mr. Morrell Grigg. Mr. Earl Strange, former football mentor, was then re-established in that capacity. After completing one and a half years of our training, Mr. Edward Good succeeded Mr. Irvin L. Keener as commander of the varsity basketeers. No need to say that they had a very successful season—in fact, they won the Suburban Conference Three Championship!

Baseball, too, had a change of coaches; Mr. Strange resigned and was replaced by Mr. LeRoy Bachman. Mr. Good had charge of the track squads during our first and third years, with Mr. Meyers handling the "thin-clads" the second year. However, the most outstanding change in the sports field was the installation of an accelerated program of physical education for boys.

Morale among the members of the crew was high. Dances and skating parties offered a means of diversion and pleasure for all. The most outstanding morale boosters were the Junior Prom and the Commencement Dance at the end of our third year. These gay affairs were well attended by seamen aboard the "1943 P. H. S." The annual class trip to Washington was eliminated because of war restrictions. Baccalaureate services and Class Night exercises were memorable occasions held aboard our ship.

The foremost undertaking of the crew was the production of "New Fires." Under the direction of Miss K. Arline Hartman and Miss Mildred Christman, the comedy was presented to three highly appreciative audiences.

Finally, we are about to graduate from the ranks of "boots" into the "reserve" of Pottstown High. Our only wish is that all of our shipmates be present at any and all of the activities we sponsor as alumni of P. H. S.

CLASS WILL

WE, the Class of 1943, of the borough of Pottstown, State of Pennsylvania, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish, and declare this our last will and testament, in manner and form as follows:

I. Paul Frick is handing his musical ability down to Robert Lozenski, who we are sure will succeed as "Frickie" has.

II. To some deserving Junior, we will Mae Wilhelm's graceful strutting as drum major.

III. To Mary Jane Ecker, we will the graciousness and sweetness of Muriel Prutzman's lovely voice.

IV. To Mary Sands, we will Regina Suchoza's knowledge of Dale Carnegie's book, "How to Win Friends and Influence People." We are sure Mary is going to be a popular leader of her class as Jeannie was of ours.

V. To Mr. VonDrach and his attendance office helpers, we will a lie detector to help them pick out the "holiday snatchers" from the ill.

VI. To any unsuspecting Junior who will have it, we will Paul Harp's "crew cut."

VII. The Seniors will their desire to take a hop, skip, and jump down to the corner drug store during study hall to the Juniors. (Hope you get away with it!)

VIII. We do not want to deprive the Junior class of Ed. Galligan's debating technique; therefore, we are willing it to Alvin Weiss.

IX. To Sonia Stein, we will the daily exercise obtained by Betty Miller from chewing gum.

X. Nancy Keller is the fortunate heir to all of Thelma Gresh's blue slips and excellent report cards.

XI. We bequeath the corridor romance of Ruth Lau and Johnny LaPish to the lovelorn Juniors, and hope that their associations may be everlasting.

XII. To the timid souls of the Junior class, we leave the inspiration of Douglas Weaver's daily chatter.

XIII. To the basketball team of 1943-44, we hereby extend our compliments for the success they will surely achieve, as did the 1942-43 squad.

XIV. To the remaining members of the school, we will a spirit of untiring effort in the purchase of war bonds and stamps, so that memories of school years may be revered.

XV. Joyce Fox is named as heir to Fay Hutkin's creative writing ability, which she will need in taking over Fay's job as editor-in-chief of our "P. H. S. News."

XVI. Ed. Ross is the grateful heir to Fred Riegner's swimming prowess.

XVII. We hereby bequeath to the Class of '44, water wings to be used when floundering in the oft-stated "deep water." We empower them with the right to stay afloat as we have done.

XVIII. Robert McDevitt's frequent vacations, (you might call it bagging) we will to Bob Falardeau.

XIX. To some deserving person in the Junior class, we leave Lawrence Garner's "outstanding" French ability and all the A's and B's he dreamed of attaining.

XX. Now that they are graduating and going out into the world, we will the silliness of Mary Anne Mills, Babs Moore, and Lucy Jackson to Sonia Stein, Helen Nagle, and Gwen Strunk.

XXI. To our faculty, principal, and vice principal, we leave our thanks for the understanding and guidance they so efficiently gave us the past three years.

XXII. We name as the sole executor of this our last will and testament—VICTORY. We are certain that at this time Victory can execute and bring to fulfillment all our hopes for the Class of 1944.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and affixed our seal this first day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three.

U. S. S. TROIAD

Date, June 4, 1953

Stand by to shoot the sun! . . . the readings constitute a preview of what the members of the crew of the U. S. S. Troiad, 1943, are doing after sailing through uncharted waters for a decade.

Mark One! Latitude, 40 degrees north—vicinity of Pottstown! What a transformation! The town has given way to the city; our former home town is now a thriving metropolis!

That ultra-modern department store on the corner is owned and managed by Harry Grandy, the city's most successful businessman. He and the community at large are quite proud of the fact that the modern structure was built by the nationally famous civil engineers, Ferdinand Heller and Merlyn Wolcott.

The store is staffed by many of our former classmates. Jeannie Suchoza, recently acclaimed by the New York Fashion Congress as the outstanding designer of the year, is consultant on style. Betty Miller, whose new coiffure has electrified America, is in charge of the beauty salon. Lovely members of the modeling staff are Anne Psota and Lucille Roberts, who have a knack of making all clothes look winsome. By the way, those fascinating windows and the marvelous color scheming of the interior of the store are the handiwork of both Irene Petzer and Marie Kaas.

The expert efficiency of the store may be traced to the fact that Kathryn Nester is in charge of the office staff. Betty Rhoads, Florence Baker, Ruth Miller, Elizabeth Fecak, LaRue Frech, Helen Swavely, and Grace Schaeffer are the stenographers who deftly carry out the orders of the executives, thus enabling the store to serve the public. Satisfied customers who shop by telephone are accommodated by Margaret Speilman and Marion Bartchak, the girls at the switchboard.

Mark Two! Latitude, 39 degrees north—the fair city of Baltimore! Here at the famed Johns Hopkins Hospital we find Evelyn Schaffer and Mae Wilhelm conversing with a handsome young interne. Both nurses, however, have rings on the third finger of their left hands. Guess you were wrong about the interne! Other P. H. S. lassies now wearing the white caps of the nursing profession are Anne Potpinko, Anna Kopcho, Geraldine Gerhart, Jane Sooy, Eleanor Parker, Arline Hoff, and Jeanne Moffitt. Betty Davidheiser and Betty Bolognese are nurses' aides.

Ruth Lau, assisted by Evelyn Taglieber, is the dietitian at the hospital. Marion Zimmerman, Sara Jane Dunlap, and Phyllis Dore are employed as technicians. Eleanor Keene, Betty Fox, and Mary Palladino keep the office records in order.

Mark Three! Latitude, 39 degrees north—the industrial section of the city. At the huge Glenn Martin plant, we see many familiar faces. Over there are some of our "pals"—Robert Shantz, Robert Jameson, Mattheis Peto, Joseph Fritsch, and Martin Randazzo, who are all, by this time, expert machinists. Alton Missimer and Anthony Marchione are among the many who make the blueprints; Grier Schwoyer is a mechanic who helps to keep the planes in top condition so that test pilots Charles Weller and Linwood Peterman can get the most out of them.

In the office we find chief engineers Harry Fillman and John Kugler, as well as a competent staff. In fact, they're also former shipmates of ours: Maurice Levin, Wallace Reigner, Florence Giangiacomo, Isabel Fillmen, Beatrice Shirey, Dorothy Wentworth, and Eleanor Slaby. Although there are but few accidents, the plant employs several nurses, should need for them arise. In this capacity we find Ange Bongarzone, Maybella Galloway, Doris Crater, and Sally Roeller.

MARK FOUR! Latitude, 41 degrees north—the metropolis of New York, a place about which all our shipmates dreamed!

Ed. Galligan sits importantly behind the city editor's desk of a large newspaper. Sidney Weiss and James Ottaviano are both featured sports writers, their favorite topic being the last world series in which John Kurtz and Gerry Egolf proved themselves outstanding players.

Away from the seeming disorder of the newspaper office, in a west side high school, our own Alma Mater is well represented. Faculty members include Thelma Gresh, Jeanne DeTurck, and Lois Kinckiner; Barbara Jean Keim is the instructor in music; Doris Smith, in art; and Gayle Galloway, in physical education.

Career Day brought several of our classmates to this school to speak. Gloria Query spoke on opportunities in radio work; Adela Kupeski, on civil service work; John Pomponio, a flight instructor at LaGuardia Field, on aeronautics; and Bob Hoffman, an expert cabinet maker, gave pointers on his vocation.

MARK FIVE! Again New York, a city large enough to absorb many more persons!

William Henry's dream has come true! Each Sunday, he preaches to an interested congregation in a beautiful church. Muriel Prutzman, whose voice used to thrill us, is organist and musical director in the church across the street.

Once more in the business district, we meet Virginia Egolf and Rita McConnell, who are secretaries for the law firm of McDevitt and Davidheiser. In the same building, Charles Fleischer plans advertisements that have already brought him fame. Down on a smaller street, Mary Focht has her shop. She is, at this time, the most sought after interior decorator in the city; her ideas have transformed the apartments of many of the "smart set."

Lawrence Garner, who used to play in our band, is now a successful businessman. However, he still finds time for his music and for helping his young son to learn the intricacies of the alto horn.

Paul Frick and Luther Medinger are both featured soloists with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. Away from Carnegie Hall, in the night club sector, we find Jessie Baker "wowing" the patrons of Leon's and Eddie's with her "blues" singing.

MARK SIX! Throughout this continent and perhaps on others, our fellows, our classmates, our shipmates, our friends, all are busily engaged in following the dictates of their minds and hearts. They're successful, they're busy; but they do occasionally enjoy a bit of reminiscence about the days spent on board that "grand old ship," the U. S. S. TROIAD.

"Boosting the Old High School"

Our Alma Mater

Faithful and true hearted,
Let us cheer our dear "Old High";
We revere her and defend her,
And her colors proudly fly.
We will stand by her united,
Of her deeds we gladly tell,
Her Colors streaming,
Glad faces beaming,
So here's a cheer for her
That we all love so well.

Chorus

Joyous and ever loyal
Let us boost for our "Old High."
Let ev'ry heart sing,
Let ev'ry voice ring,
There's no time to grieve or sigh;
It's ever onward, our course pursuing,
May defeat ne'er our ardor cool,
But united, we will boost for her,
Our Old High School!

Honors she has taken
On the track and with the ball,
May she always rank the highest
May her colors never fall;
There's no other that can match her
When her team is on the field.
Her boys the fleetest,
Her girls the sweetest,
Then here's a cheer for her
For her who ne'er will yield.
